

Please consider the Wisconsin consumer when you review Wisconsin's and the national "no call lists". We in Wisconsin appreciate the state law that prohibits telemarketing calls. The fact that over 80% of Wisconsin's residents are on the Wisconsin "no call list" should prove that we want to keep our law. Tell the bankers group that the FCC refuses to get involved in local lawmaking and let the states do their own governing. Thank you.